

The Station of the Báb

INTRODUCTION: Approaching the threshold...

At the time of one's declaration of faith in Bahá'u'lláh, every believer additionally acknowledges recognition of the Báb as the Forerunner of Bahá'u'lláh. Here one will have the opportunity to become more fully aware of the Báb's profound station, of His great significance to the Bahá'í Faith, and of His considerable importance in religious history.

The prophetic Scriptures of past religions allude to a time at the end of a cycle in human history when two Manifestations of God would appear in near proximity to each other. The Báb, Whose name literally means "the gate" or "the door," is the first of those twin Messengers. His ministry figuratively "opened the door," which prepared the way for the appearance of the second Manifestation of God, Bahá'u'lláh.

At the youthful age of twenty-four, the Báb was recognized as that first promised Messenger of God by eighteen souls, each independently and all prior to His public declaration of Prophethood. After declaring Himself to be God's Promised Messenger, He was scorned, imprisoned, and at the age of thirty, shot to death by a regiment of 750 soldiers. His life and ministry were short, dramatic, and of overwhelming spiritual significance to the peoples of the world. During the brief twenty-year span of His Dispensation some twenty thousand of His followers (called Bábís) were put to death by hateful mobs, government officials and religious leaders. The study you are about to embark upon attempts to convey the most basic truths pertaining to the wondrous and astounding station of the Báb.

“The Báb, acclaimed by Bahá'u'lláh as the ‘Essence of Essences,’ the ‘Sea of Seas,’ the ‘Point round Whom the realities of the Prophets and Messengers revolve,’ ‘from Whom God hath caused to proceed the knowledge of all that was and shall be,’ Whose ‘rank excelleth that of all the Prophets,’ and Whose ‘Revelation transcendeth the comprehension and understanding of all their chosen ones,’ had delivered His Message and discharged His mission. He Who was, in the words of 'Abdu'l-Bahá, the ‘Morn of Truth’ and ‘Harbinger of the Most Great Light,’ Whose advent at once signalized the termination of the ‘Prophetic Cycle’ and the inception of the ‘Cycle of Fulfillment,’ had simultaneously through His Revelation banished the shades of night that had descended upon His country, and proclaimed the impending rise of that Incomparable Orb [Bahá'u'lláh] Whose radiance was to envelop the whole of mankind. He, as affirmed by Himself, ‘the Primal Point from which have been generated all created things,’ ‘one of the sustaining pillars of the Primal Word of God,’ the ‘Mystic Fane,’ the ‘Great Announcement,’ the ‘Flame of that supernal Light that glowed upon Sinai,’ the ‘Remembrance of God’ concerning Whom ‘a separate Covenant hath been established with each and every Prophet’ had, through His advent, at once fulfilled the promise of all ages and ushered in the consummation of all Revelations. He the ‘Qá'im’ (He Who ariseth) promised to the Shi'ahs, the ‘Mihdi’ (One Who is guided) awaited by the Sunnis, the ‘Return of John the Baptist’ expected by the Christians, the ‘Ushidar-Mah’ referred to in the Zoroastrian scriptures, the ‘Return of Elijah’ anticipated by the Jews, Whose Revelation was to show forth ‘the signs and tokens of all the Prophets’, Who was to ‘manifest the perfection of Moses, the radiance of Jesus and the patience of Job’ had appeared, proclaimed His Cause, been mercilessly persecuted and died gloriously. The ‘Second Woe,’ spoken of in the Apocalypse of St. John the Divine, had, at long last, appeared, and the first of the two ‘Messengers,’ Whose appearance had been prophesied in the Qur'án, had been sent down. The first ‘Trumpet-Blast,’ destined to smite the earth with extermination, announced in the latter Book, had finally been sounded. ‘The Inevitable,’ ‘The Catastrophe,’ ‘The Resurrection,’ ‘The Earthquake of the Last Hour,’ foretold by that same Book, had all come to pass. The ‘clear tokens’ had been ‘sent down,’ and the ‘Spirit’ had ‘breathed,’ and the ‘souls’ had ‘waked up,’ and the ‘heaven’ had been ‘cleft,’ and the ‘angels’ had ‘ranged in order,’ and the ‘stars’ had been ‘blotted out,’ and the ‘earth’ had ‘cast forth her burden,’ and ‘Paradise’ had been ‘brought near,’ and ‘hell’ had been ‘made to blaze,’ and the ‘Book’ had been ‘set,’ and the ‘Bridge’ had been ‘laid out,’ and the ‘Balance’ had been ‘set up,’ and the ‘mountains scattered in dust.’ The ‘cleansing of the Sanctuary,’ prophesied by Daniel and confirmed by Jesus Christ in His reference to ‘the abomination of desolation,’ had been accomplished. The ‘day whose length shall be a thousand years,’ foretold by the Apostle of God in His Book, had terminated. The ‘forty and two months,’ during which the ‘Holy City,’ as predicted [in the Book of Revelation] by St. John the Divine, would be trodden under foot, had elapsed. The ‘time of the end’ had been ushered in, and the first of the ‘two Witnesses’ into Whom, ‘after three days and a half the Spirit of Life from God’ would enter, had arisen and had ‘ascended up to heaven in a cloud.’ The ‘remaining twenty and five letters to be made manifest,’ according to Islamic tradition, out of the ‘twenty and seven letters’ of which Knowledge has been declared to consist, had been revealed. The ‘Man Child,’ mentioned in the Book of Revelation, destined to ‘rule all nations with a rod of iron,’ had released, through His [the Báb’s] coming, the creative energies which, reinforced by the effusions of a swiftly succeeding and infinitely mightier Revelation [that of Bahá'u'lláh], were to instill into the entire human race the capacity to achieve its organic unification, attain maturity and thereby reach the final stage in its age-long evolution.”
